

Reports quarterly.	reference to his management that may be reasonably required. Said report shall be made quarterly or oftener to said board. He shall have the team and all apparatus properly cared for. In all matters he shall be subject to the control and direction of said board.
Powers of commissioners.	SEC. 17. That said board of road commissioners shall have full power and discretion to adopt such methods and means and agencies for and in the management, improvement and working of said road as they may determine to be wise and best, regardless of any seeming limitation or restriction in this act; and they may also make such purchases of gravel pits, lands, timber and machinery and teams as they may deem wise and important for the improvement of the roads.
Annual statements.	SEC. 18. That the board of road commissioners shall make an annual statement of all their doings and proceedings to the board of county commissioners at their regular meeting in September of each year, which statement shall be recorded and preserved by the register of deeds in a suitable book, which shall be subject to the inspection of the public; and the register of deeds shall receive the same fees for such services as he receives in other like cases.
Fees of register.
Powers under general law.	SEC. 19. That the board of commissioners shall have all the powers and jurisdiction given to the board of county commissioners and justices of the peace in chapter sixty-five of The Revisal of one thousand nine hundred and five and the amendments thereto, and may exercise the same where not inconsistent with this act; and the provisions of said chapter and the amendments thereto, where not inconsistent herewith are to remain in force.
Entry on land for material.	SEC. 20. That for the purpose of repairing and constructing and improving the public roads, the supervisor or other officers employed by said board shall have authority to enter upon any uncultivated land near to or adjoining the roads, to cut and carry away timber, except trees or groves left for ornament or shade, to dig or cause to be dug and carried away gravel, earth, sand or stone which may be necessary to repair or improve said road, to make such drains or ditches through the same as may be necessary for the benefit of the road, doing as little injury to the land as possible; and any person willfully obstructing or resisting the performance of these duties, or willfully obstructing such drains or ditches when made, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. And any such supervisor, officer or employee maliciously or needlessly injuring or damaging any lands or timbers in the performance of his duties shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.
Drains or ditches.
Obstructing drains or ditches.
Damaging land a misdemeanor.
Continuation of present law.	SEC. 21. That the roads of said township shall be worked until the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, under the laws in force on January first, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.
Repealing clause.	SEC. 22. That in the event this act shall be adopted as hereinbefore provided, then all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with